THE RINK

The Rink – With authentic hockey boards from tee to green, the 14th hole will be transformed into #TheRink, the embodiment of Canada. Spectators bang the boards and do the wave, players wear their favourite hockey team jerseys, volunteers dress as referees and celebrities from the world of sport and entertainment join in on the fun as well! #TheRink is a must see area that has become a hallmark feature of the RBC Canadian Open.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

“ Just looking at some of the names, even on just this side of the trophy, Sam Snead, Bobby Locke, Arnold Palmer, Tiger Woods, Nick Price, some of the greats of the game have won this trophy. So for me to put my name on this is something special. ”

Rory McIlroy

I made a putt on 10 and it was just like, it was like chills. The putt went in, the crowd went nuts, and just some of those moments and things I felt I'll remember for a long time.

THE ROAR FOR A CANADIAN COMING DOWN THE STRETCH

Many Canadians have come close to making history at their National Open. In 2023's final round, Nick Taylor birdied holes 17 and 18, and then holed a 72-foot eagle putt on the fourth playoff hole to defeat Tommy Fleetwood and become the first Canadian to win in 69 years.
